AFR® TRADE SHOW FURNISHINGS: YOUR PARTNER IN SALES FOR 40 YEARS

We know trade shows are an important part of your sales and marketing effort. Your booth is your calling card, your message. It needs to be heard above the noise of hundreds of others on the same convention floor. So why are you whispering?

AFR® Trade Show Furnishings speaks volumes for you. Our stylish and quality pieces broadcast the message loud and clear – you have taken the time to choose a design and product that is as unique as your message. And that you put your customer first by creating a space in which you can hear their needs, create solutions for them, and win their loyalty.

Great design is in the details, and yet, although we always dot every "i" and cross every "t," we are super quick to react when last-minute needs arise. Our flexibility and can-do attitude is what sets us apart … that and our 22 distribution centers across the United States, resulting in a whopping ONE MILLION square feet of warehouse space filled with fabulous furnishings that are changing the future of trade show design.

While you won't find us sitting on the job, it's our job (and pleasure) to give you and your customers the best seat in the house, or rather, on the convention center floor!
